

The ISD 621 Family Resource Center

The 621 Family Resource Center lends resources, free of charge, on parenting and family issues appropriate for parents of children from birth through eighteen years of age.

Visit the Family Resource Center at our new site:

Pike Lake Education Center
Room 8
2101 NW 14th Street
New Brighton, Mn

Hours:
8:30am - 4:30pm Monday - Friday

Please call Linda Case, at 651-639-6028, if you would like more information or to schedule a time to tour our center.

Thanks to last year's grant from the North Suburban Youth Foundation, our collection has been updated with nearly $5000 worth of new parenting books, CD's, DVD's and videos.

Following are titles of some of our newest resources:

The Best You Can Be: A Teen's Guide to Fitness and Nutrition by Christopher Hovius

Love and Logic Solutions: Unbeatable, On-the-Mark Answers to Parents' Most Asked Questions About Raising Kids (DVD) by Jim Fay

Oh Great! What Do I Do Now? Parenting Remedies for When Kids Cook Up the Unexpected (CD's) by Charles Fay

Positive Parenting of Teens (Video and Curriculum) University of Minnesota

What Young Children Need to Succeed: Working Together to Build Assets from Birth to Age 11 by Jolene Roehlkepartain and Nancy Leffert
