THE TRADITIONAL COMMENCEMENT ACADEMIC CAPS AND GOWNS

During this evening's ceremony, the graduates and faculty members are wearing traditional academic caps and gowns. The history of such academic dress dates back to the earliest days of the oldest universities. The first formal notice of such graduation apparel originated with a statute in England in 1321. Even today, we respect some of these traditions. The cap is worn with the mortarboard parallel to the floor and the tassel placement on the right. When the graduates receive their diploma, the tassel is moved to the left.

STUDENT APPAREL AND HONORS

The graduates are wearing green caps and gowns representing Mounds View High School's color. Members of the National Honor Society are recognized by the gold tassel. Students who are graduating with honors may be wearing an optional white honor cord. The following grade point averages (GPA) are used to designate honors achievements:

GPA of 3.333 - Honors

GPA of 3.667 - High Honors

GPA of 4.000 - Highest Honors

FACULTY ACADEMIC APPAREL

Faculty members and other platform guests are wearing the traditional black academic apparel for higher education. Gowns vary in cut and shape depending on the highest degree earned by the individual. The gown for a Bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. A Master's degree gown has oblong sleeves, open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner and the rear part of its oblong shape is cut square, while the front part has an arc cut away. The gown is designed so that it may be worn open or closed. The gown for the Doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves and is designed so that it may be worn open or closed. The front of the gown is faced with black velvet and three bars of velvet are used across each sleeve.

DEGREE HONORS AND COLORS

Faculty are wearing the academic hood trimmed with the color associated with the academic discipline in which they earned their highest degree. The inside lining of their hood reflects the official color or colors of the college or university granting their degree.
