

LEARNING MODEL TRACKER

Minnesota school districts have been asked to determine their learning model based on local health data and the number of positive cases in their local county over a period of two weeks. The state will provide updated numbers every 7 days for a two-week period. Distance learning is always an option families can choose.

Our latest number:
16.57

Current learning model:
Schools will begin the year with distance learning September 8 through September 18. Blended (hybrid) learning will begin Monday, September 21.
