This handbook covers current personnel procedures/practices for employees who are not affiliated with a bargaining unit. Although we have attempted to address matters of general applicability to non-affiliated employees of District 621, we know that it does not cover every situation that might arise. District policies and regulations (see your supervisor) are additional resources for employees needing information about employment policies and procedures.

The District reserves the right to make changes at any time, with or without notice, and to interpret the Handbook for Non-affiliated Employees as well as the District policies and procedures at the discretion of the District. If you have questions, contact your supervisor or Human Resources for more information.

Unless the terms of your employment are modified by express contract, you are an at-will employee and the District reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time without cause. No provision in the Handbook for Non-Affiliated Employees is intended to create a contract between the District and any employee, or to limit the rights of the District in regard to its employees in any manner including discipline and termination of employees. The Handbook is a general statement of policy, to be modified and applied by the District at its discretion. These procedures are not intended as, nor should they be construed as, promise of continued employment. Although assignments to positions are typically for a given period of time, any position may be eliminated or terminated, as the Employer shall see fit.

Hours of Employment

Work schedules are established by the immediate supervisor and generally include an eight hour work day, with one-half hour unpaid lunch. Any modifications to those hours must be arranged and authorized in advance by the immediate supervisor who will take into account the need to continue the efficient operation and supervision of the department.

Work Year

Employees working less than twelve (12) months will observe a work year in accordance with job requirements and/or supervisor direction. Employees must work a minimum of two hundred sixteen (216) days to be considered a ten (10) month employee a minimum of two hundred and thirty- nine (239) days as an eleven (11) month employee and at a minimum of two hundred and sixty (260) days to be considered a twelve (12 month) employee.

Emergency Closing of Schools

When the Superintendent orders schools to be closed because of an emergency or bad weather, all employees are expected to attempt to report to work as soon as possible. Those employees who do not report to work will be required to use paid time off (PTO).

Compensatory Time and Overtime

For hourly non-exempt employees, all hours worked beyond the regular forty (40) hour work week must be approved in advance by the immediate supervisor and must be completed in the work place. All approved overtime hours must be submitted to Payroll on a time card and all compensatory time hours must be submitted to the Human Resources Office on the Time Off Report Form showing date worked and number of hours worked. Both must be signed by the immediate supervisor. In addition, comp time will not be allowed to carry over from one fiscal year to the next. Arrangements to use comp time must be made in advance with your supervisor and it is to be used in the fiscal year it was earned or be paid out at the end of each fiscal year.

The Human Resources Office will provide you with information as to whether or not your employment qualifies for time-and one-half payments under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

Performance Evaluations

Evaluations are completed in accordance with Policy EG 5101 Performance Review of Support Staff. The primary purposes of employee performance reviews are to evaluate job performance, identify individual strengths and/or weaknesses and to aid the employee in gaining insight into those areas requiring further development and/or remediation. Each performance review will consist of a combination of general observations, formal conferences and a written evaluation on a District approved form with the immediate supervisor or designee. The performance review will take place on an annual basis.
